Home Equipment Loan Program

Marie Short Honorary Toy Loan Program

Borrower Responsibility

Recipient/Borrower assumes responsibility for making sure any piece of equipment or toy is safe and appropriate for his/her child's use by working in consultation with a physician/therapist regarding use and fitting. The recipient/borrower also assumes responsibility for ensuring safety of equipment or toy if used by other children than those it has been borrowed for.

Waiver of Claims Liability

In consideration of the loan, at no cost, of a health care appliance, therapy aid or toy, described as: (Include ID Number and description of item or items)

I/We, the recipient/borrower, parent or guardian of recipient, having inspected and accepted said appliance for use from Lender, South Sound Parent to Parent, hereby waive any rights to assert any claim of whatsoever nature for injuries to any persons or property arising from use thereof, and agree to hold Lender and any other personnel of agents thereof, as well as any organizations or persons affiliated therewith, harmless from any such claim by recipient/borrower and/or third parties.
